

12 June 1853

My Dear Sir

As I have now, having two letters on the way will at least have no doubt been conveniently done & I will not expect you for any time now in delivery. I am having already enclosed to much more in the form of my parcel for transmission.

Yours truly
J. B. Brown

J. L. Lamy